6. Please provide a one sentence “testimonial” about the Forestry Challenge:

“The Forestry Challenge was harder than I expected, but in a good way.”

“Without the Forestry Challenge, I would not have been able to experience some of the things that foresters do in their careers.”

“The Forestry Challenge enlightens students about the everyday life of California’s foresters.”

“The Forestry Challenge has allowed me to expand my horizons as well as learn the importance of our forestry. I hope more young students, like myself, continue to learn and thrive in the Forestry field.”

“The Forestry Challenge is a completely unique experience that cannot be found anywhere else! Especially for the ‘city kids’ who have never seen a tree!”

“Forestry is such an overlooked field, but Forestry Challenge went above and beyond to expose high schoolers to a new experience.”

“My favorite part of the event was field training and speaking to a Registered Professional Forester because I learned many ways in which the environment is studied.”

“The Forestry Challenge is a great way to learn about the environment and ways in which an individual can have a positive impact on our world.”
