

VOLUNTEER JOB DESCRIPTIONS

Registration – Collect participant paperwork, hand out t-shirts, have participants sign photo mats, etc. Wednesday from 3:00 to 6:00 p.m. 6 people, no experience necessary.

Night Hike Leader – Wednesday from 8:00 to 10:00 p.m. 1 - 2 people with a background in wildlife biology, others to keep group together.

Field Training – Teach students how to use forestry tools, identify basic tree species, and use an identification key. Thursday 8:30 a.m. to noon. 8 people, forestry background helpful but not needed.

Field Trip Assistant – Help students collect data in field, possibly including tree population, size, species composition, basal area, canopy cover, and fuel loading. Thursday 1:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. 8 to 12 people with a forestry background.

Ask a Forester – Meet with student teams to discuss their solutions to the given focus topic. Thursday 7:00 to 10:00 p.m. 6 to 8 foresters. Must spend about 30 minutes reading materials prior to event.

Field Testing – Exam proctors monitor testing stations and keep students on schedule. Friday 8:30 to 12:30 and/or 1:00 to 5:00 p.m. 8 people, no experience necessary.

Presentation Judges – Listen to student presentations, ask questions after each presentation, and fill out score sheet. Saturday 8:00 a.m. to noon. 12 to 18 people, no experience necessary, but must spend about 30 minutes reading materials prior to event.

Presentation Timekeepers - Proctor student presentations, keep track of time, and show flash cards with time remaining. Saturday 8:00 a.m. to noon. 4 to 6 people, no experience necessary.

Photographer/Videographer – Take whole-group and school photos, action photos and videos throughout the event. 1 person, photography experience preferred.