

The Wells Preserve property is a 150-acre parcel acquired by the American River Conservancy in September 2020. It is located in the Cosumnes River watershed and is a Montane Hardwood Forest with a riparian zone. It is an important wildlife corridor, with over 700 acres of contiguous protected land.